Happy Birthday to Whom?

On June 27, 1859, a schoolteacher named Mildred J. Hill composed a tune she called "Good Morning to All." Her younger sister, Patty Hill, wrote some cheerful lyrics that the two could sing to their students upon their arrival at school. In 1924, however, the song underwent a dramatic change. A verse was added with the line "Happy birthday to you." Soon, it became the most popular song in the world, sung on everyone's birthday. Yet the song was never credited or copyrighted. In 1935, the Summy Company decided to register a copyright to the song, and then in 1988, Warner/Chappell Music purchased the company owning the copyright, claiming ownership of the song. While Warner/Chappell claims that a royalty of $700 is owed each time the song is sung, no one is going to let an exorbitant fee like that spoil the pleasure of singing "Happy Birthday to You" at a loved one's birthday party.

Happy Birthday!!

June Birthdays

In astrology, those born June 1–20 are Gemini's Twins. Twins seem to have two personalities and can blend into any situation. They have an energetic and fun-loving side that is the life of the party, but also a deep and emotional side that needs love and nurturing. Those born June 21–30 are the Crabs of Cancer. Guided by their hearts, Crabs are emotional and nurturing. They create deep bonds and comfortable homes and are always willing to welcome people into their circle.

In the Name of the Father

Fathers, thank mothers for the creation of Father's Day. It was a woman named Sonora Smart Dodd, one of six children raised by her widower father, who lobbied to create a father's equivalent to Mother's Day. Dodd took her cause to churches, shopkeepers, the YMCA, and local government officials until finally, on June 19, 1910, Washington state celebrated the first Father's Day. Over the years, the holiday gained traction, and in 1924, President Calvin Coolidge urged all states to adopt Father's Day as a holiday. But this was not without controversy. Throughout the 1920s and '30s, groups attempted to squash both Mother's and Father's Day. They argued instead for one holiday, Parents' Day, for, as one advocate said, "both parents should be loved and respected together." It wasn't until 1972 that Richard Nixon, in the middle of his presidential re-election campaign, signed a proclamation making Father's Day a federally recognized holiday—58 years after Mother's Day was made official.

Easy Bakin' Moms

Moms are amazing for so many things! But one of the sweetest things we love about moms is that they make super yummy cookies!

Celebrating Dads!

Rah, Rah Rad! Who's got the greatest dad? We do! Here at Alpine Meadows we have lots of incredible fathers! And this June we look forward to celebrating all the wonderful things they do. Here are some of our fabulous fellas in various activities. Parties, entertainment, sharing collectibles, going shopping, socializing, so many ways to enjoy the day!

I love you MOM

Marvelous Moms!

Each year, we look forward to honoring our mothers with a special tea – complete with beautiful linens, cups and teapots. But we don't stop there! We add delicious treats, beautiful music and festive hats that are perfect for the occasion. Mothers and daughters alike smiled brightly as we enjoyed the ambiance and the company. 😊
